

PRESS RELEASE

United Nations Development Programme

For the first time in history, Maendeleo Ya Wanawake Organization (MYWO) has taken a neutral stance during the election period; with the view of participating in peace advocacy, which has been done in collaboration with the Partnership for Peace “Chagua Amani Zuia Noma”, peace campaign. To date, (MYWO) has taken their peace advocacy initiative to various hotspots in Kenya that have had incidences of election relate violence i.e. Tana River, Mount Elgon, and Kisii. The next peace project will take place in Nairobi on December 20th, 2007.

United Nations Development Programme Resident Representative, Ms. Elizabeth Lwanga, will jointly flag off the Nairobi Peace Caravan with (MYWO) Chairman Ms. Rukia Subow on Thursday December 20th, 2007 at 9:00am at Uhuru Park. The Caravan will stop at all the 8 Divisions in Nairobi. (Please see below programme)

MAENDELEO YA WANAWAKE, UNDP AND THE PARTNERSHIP FOR PEACE

CHAGUA AMANI ZUIA NOMA PEACE CARAVAN, NAIROBI

THURSDAY 20TH DECEMBER 2007

When: Thursday, 20th December 2007

Time: Flagged off at 9.00 am, Ends at 5.00PM

Where: Flagged off at Uhuru Park and Ends at Otiende Shopping Centre

Theme: CHAGUA AMANI ZUIA NOMA

Caravan Route: Uhuru park, Haillesellassie, Machakos Bus stop, Eastleigh and the KBS route, Jogood Road through Bahati, DCS office Jogoo Road, Doholm Roudabout, Kayole, Dandora, Huruma Roundabout, Juja Road, Pangani, Westlands, Kangemi, Uthiru, Kawangware, Dagoretti Corner, Woodley, Kibera, D.Os office Kibera, Kabarnet Road, Ngong Road, Mbagathi Way, Langata Road, Mugumoini, Southlands, and Peace Baraza at Otiende Shopping centre